THE EDUCATOR LEADERSHIP LEARNING SUMMIT

The TELL SUMMIT is designed to inspire current and future educators in the high school world. This TED Talk-inspired event was created to spark new learning ideas, stimulate deep discussion, sharpen one another and provide networking opportunities among like-minded educators.

A SPECIFIC MISSION.

The TELL SUMMIT is specifically created for school superintendents, administrators, principals, ADs and coaches. The TELL SUMMIT will bring in several top state educators and motivational speakers to share their experiences in the world of education.

There is a great need for continued growth and learning to better reach the next generation. The TELL SUMMIT exists to facilitate growth with challenging and inspirational messages
